Of unknown paths and streets I start to walk
You start to speak I still can't see so clear of you

So come in the light and lift this war
Or bring on the fight it's what we're made for

Reach out to you
Lift up the mess
We'll run to you

You saved this life though I've fallen short of you
And raised this voice that speaks your truth alone now

So come in the light and lift this war
Or bring on the fight it's what we're made for

Reach out to you
Lift up the mess
We'll run to you

Take this offer I've passed
Breathe in life, breathe in me

We won't give up, you won't let us fall
We won't give in, it's what we're made for
