-intro-

-verse 1-

Where in the hell you're always going?
You're in a hurry, but time is flowing.
You want it all, and you want it fast,
But don't you know, this life won't last.

-bridge-

-chorus-

Running faster and faster day by day,
Your end is near so you need to pray.
Why did you have to run like hell,
Just to be sure and to hear the bell?

-verse 2-

Why in hell you are always in rush?
Grab your make-ups, put a little blush.
You want it all, and you want it fast,
But don't you know, this life won't last.
