-verse 1-

Oh how I hate this goddamn place.
Fall and end of it won't be a pity.
It should burn away, down down down,
Burn like hell, burn to the ground!

-bridge-

Smoke on the ruins,
Of fallen mankind.
The eternal rains,
And the glorious wind. (x2)

-chorus-

It's devouring itself all the time,
Forgetting always what is the prime.
Decisions made by tossing the dime,
This world is just a one big crime.

-verse 2-

Why don't rulers fix these defects?
Do something, turn the wrong to correct.
Do we want it this way, no no no,
But your brains, they're just too slow.

-bridge-
