-verse 1-

As it always was, I was wrong and you were right.
You kissed me 100 times before I was lost in the night.
I started to wander under these darkened skies.
But now I'm in the dark with shadows as disguise.

-verse 2-

So goodbye my darling, as you won't hear from me.
My mistakes hurt so much and finally made me see.
I'm nothing anymore but shadow of yesterday.
I'm needle lost in massive stack of hay.

-chorus-

I miss nothing in the past but all,
Sound of your voice in your last call.
I miss everything we had together,
But it is lost for now and forever.

-verse 3-

And that's how I faded away from your life.
Killed myself, stabbed my heart with a knife.
Vanished all the memories and love so kind.
So I won't have nothing, just me and my mind.
