-verse 1-

Hey, I have already payed the price to you,
You tried to look like you didn't knew.
What wrong have I done to suffer like this,
Didn't you knew, I've got soul that exists.

-chorus-

You use those feelings in wrong way,
You tell me to go away, stay, go away, stay.
You use love as your weapon (and it's not),
You kill me and my heart (please, the shot)

-verse 2-

Hey, don't come to me and ask what to do,
You ruined everything in my life, so fuck you.
You, you have the keys to go back in time,
But why'd you care, this lasts only my lifetime.
