True friends may seem like forever
Fake friends may seem like never Friendship love is like a crystal rose True love is like a crystal heart
You may not know what love is but here it goes Someone who loves me most would never shatter my heart
Some guys tell me I am one of a kind Becuz without my love it might be harder to find
I don't go for players like you
I just go for someone who's true
When I'm in a hard relationship I go to my best friend
Dawn
We had fun that summer right outside that warm green lawn
I love her more than anybody becuz she is my best friend
We sort of have a phrase that's says "Friendship never ends"
If you get this you are a true friend
Like I said friendship never ends
