Make up, baby yea, put you right between the eyes, with the feeling that you finally realized, that the truth is dead, and that your livin' out a lie, you put your fist in the air and you shout make up is a lie (let's go)

Make up is lies
Make up is lies
Make up is lies
Make up is lies

Make up is another word for a disguise, it can be sowed on to your skin, the skin attaches on, make up is a word when you need to be re-had, with a mirror in my hand and mirror on my mind, yea yea (let's go)

Make up is lies
Make up is lies
Make up is lies
Make up is lies

That's what im telling you, fingers don't even have to be crossed, yea baby yea comon
