A gambler staring at his hi-score.
Next to no one where he came for.
Numbers rising by the second.
Can he ever win at all.

How can I be sure it's the truth.
Will I get back what I spend.
Is it worth to take a chance.
Will I ever understand.

Your life is not a gamble,
Where your money plays the lead.
Your life is all he asks for,
He is what you need.

Is there a proof to show this,
Why my life is such a bliss.
When I reach out for Your hand.
Will I ever understand.

I don't worry about my future.
What will happen next I'm not sure.
Jesus You came down to save me.
That's what makes me understand.
