

Make Up Your Mind "The Best Memory Of All"

I remember you for the first time,
When I felt your touch.
I still remember how it felt
And what it did to me

I cannot forget the one day,
When You changed my life.
I will always look back to the minute I first met You.

The best memory of all.
Where I pull my strength from to keep my faith.

All I had to do, was let You in and open my heart for
You.

My heart belongs to You
Since the moment I let You in.
Like lots of people think,
But I know better what memories bring

They give me wings to fly,
And peace when I am worried inside,
You are my strength to fight,
So I can go on and make up my mind
