all the games we're playing, although we hate the rules, i think it's time they're broken i'm sick of all the check lists, check and see if she still cares, i guess i'll wait three days to call let's leave tonight and drive until daylight all the way to new york to a new time, eclipsing, here we let's leave tonight and pack in for the useless

may you say i just wanna be with you the words were always ending, pretending we don't care although you mean so much to me i want you to know

this time that things will be okay
and i want you to know i have a crush on you

to a new time, eclipsing, here we let's leave tonight and pack in for the useless life

because you're here with me, he's here with us,
that's all that counts.

to a new time, eclipsing, here we

he's here with us

when life moves fast, that's all that counts i think that's what you're thinking, please try a minute,
the truth revealing,

i think that's what you're thinking,
please try a minute,
the truth revealing,
let's go now.
