You're willing to wait on me some time
But you might have been misled
So I wouldn't hold my breath
'Cause I've been around this country twice
And if I don't choose to stay
Well then you'll never breathe again
I don't wanna say this
But I don't feel your pain
You want me to fake it
Oh no no no
You're dying to save us
But darling we can't shake
The coming of all these thing I've wanted more than you you you
(Cause I've fine since the break
But now you're finally telling me
That you might not be ok, but I'd guess that anyway
So I'll come by and you'll exaggerate good times
But I won't stay, stay the night)
You're trading away your heedless vows
For the most unhealthy dates
With my passing appetite
It's only a minute of my time
But just what you do best
A friendly gesture with your love attached
I don't wanna say this
But I don't feel your pain
You want me to fake it
Oh no no no
You're dying to save us
But darling we can't shake
The coming of all these thing I've wanted more than
you you you
(Chorus) whoa oh oh oh whoa oh dum dun
(Chorus) stay the night
