Let's take it back to english class
Some february morning
That I spent dreaming on my desk
Forget the ranks, so what if
I'm a scrub and your a dame?

All I wanna do is
To get to know you

So take this chance
And I will make it worth your time
There's nothing left to lose
Except something romantic
There's something still to prove
Like I could be the one for you
So take this chance
Please take this chance

Oh, the price that I would pay
Just to be yours for one day
I'll bring you to the other side
Just to show you what it's like
We'll walk around
Until the sun goes down
It's true, and it's cruel
That you knew
I'd even learn kung-fu for you
