INTRODUCING PRETTY FATT

Like the man in the moon,

We've just been introduced

I don't know you very well

But I hope to soon

A point of extravagance unequalled in time where serious things are done with a sense of play

An ideal romance you might say

Shall we dance like they did in that movie

Shall we dance

You and I

Or should we just pretend it's our first scene

Take a chance

When that last image fades

From the screen

Shall we still be together and shall you be my new romance

It's not hard to imagine

That this kind of thing can happen

Shall we dance! Shall we dance!

Shall we dance!

Shall we dance like they did in tha movie

You and I

Or should we just begin the last scene

Take a chance

When the last image fades from the screen
