Hello, it's good to see you once again
Seems I've been waiting for this moment so long
I know since you were with me yesterday
There's just nothing right in being alone

Come inside
Sit right down
And let me look into your eyes
And tell you how I'm feeling

When we're apart
It feels like forever
I never knew time could pass so slowly
There's nothing better
Than when we're together
And I just wanted you to know

Goodbye was just another word I'd say
Until it meant that you were not here with me
I try, but everything's just wasted time
When all I want to do is help you to see

Come inside
Lay right down
And let me look into your eyes
And show you what I'm feeling

When we're apart
It feels like forever
I never knew time could pass so slowly
There's nothing better
Than when we're together
And I just wanted you to know

Every day is a year
That's how I feel when you are not here
Do you believe when I say
Time disappears when I see your face

When we're apart
It feels like forever
I never knew time could pass so slowly

There's nothing better
Than when we're together
And I just wanted you to know
