There's nothing wrong with thinking I'm good at this,
I'm fucking proud of myself, I've fucking worked so hard.

You fucking doubted me, but I'm determined and I have achieved my goals.

I'll fucking prove you wrong

I've never felt this way before, it's liberating

You will suffocate in your demise

Now I've proved you wrong, come take this fucking
noose from around my neck

This is my time, my place, my everything, so who the fuck are you?

who the fuck are you to dictate me?

As I walk into a new light

I've never told you how I feel, I've lived a lie

But now I've proved you're a fucking joke

Now I've proved you wrong, come take this fucking
noose from around my neck.

Choke on your own lies. Fucking look me in the eyes

You know you can't win

There's nothing wrong with thinking I'm good at this,
I'm fucking proud of myself, I've fucking worked so hard.

You fucking doubted me, but I'm determined and I have achieved my goals.

I'll fucking prove you wrong
