Standing in the rain
Tears falling with the drops
Like my broken heart, when's it gonna stop?
Hope I hear your name
Will I get to see your face?
Living with the pain
But in the meantime, darlin'
I'll wait for you to come home
And I'll cry as I try to be strong
And I'll dream of the love that we carry
'Til I find you here in my arms...

I'll survive on my own
Just like the sunrise, you'll come back home
Darkness will carry
A kiss from a star
Will guide you back safely
Where you belong

Trying hard to breathe
Loneliness can suffocate
Every picture frame keeps me moving on
Memories remain
Help me to appreciate
Hours into days
But in the meantime, darlin'
I'll wait for you to come home
'Til I find you here in my arms

I'll survive on my own
Just like the sunrise, you'll come back home
Darkness will carry
A kiss from a star
Will guide you back safely
Where you belong

Every night I pray
Wanting just to here you say
Never, never leave you again
Tears are sure to fall
'Til the day I hear you call out my name
Call my name

I'll survive on my own
Just like the sunrise, you'll come back home
Darkness will carry
A kiss from a star
Will guide you back safely
Where you belong
