Soldiers off to war
to rule and conquer land Greeting the enemy
with their impaled heads Emperor's wrath
Now unleashed upon this world full of hate
Ruler of his kingdom
Betrayed by his church
Out for revenge
Denouncement of faith
Mountains painted red Stained in blood for victory
Return to his land
Born the unholy
Enslaving races
Killing frenzied lust
Consuming humans
encrusted in blood
World domination Darkness will conquer
Mankind has fallen
Hear the dark ones laugh
as your life is drained Rule of his kingdom....
...of faith
Soldier off to war...
...of hate.
