Attack!!!!

Uncontrollable, psychotic hysteria

Driven by blood, unsatisfiable

All his victims, considered as trophies

This is his thrill, the will to kill

Extracting souls with his knife

No emotional value for life

Crimson stains cover his clothes

Remnants of who tried to oppose

Determined to commite homicides with no regrets

Forces within his mind, passion for these corrid crimes

The Will..... To Kill... The Will to fucking kill

Livid fascinations, unthinkable to most

Day after day, this inner conflict grows

Now unstoppable, this storm of murder

Unidentified, bodies discovered

Morbid fancies brought to sight

The will to kill is his life

The will to kill
