Got no wings, no magic carpet
No net waiting to cradle me
Just got one heart so I can't help it
If I look twice before I leap
I'm on the edge of something real
Of knowing how forever feels

I've been waiting all my life
To see if love can make you fly
Might find heaven and kiss the sky
It's a long way to fall

Love can send your spirit soaring
Like an angel, glory bound
Take you high on that mountain
Send you crashing to the ground
But I'll never know
Until I take that one last step of faith

I've been waiting all my life
To see if love can make you fly
Might find heaven an' kiss the sky
A long way to fall

I felt so fearless in all of my dreams
So maybe I'll just close my eyes
And pray that the arms of love carry me high

I've been waiting all my life
To see if love can make you fly
Might find heaven an' kiss the sky
Long way, it's a long, long way to fall
