Talkin' deep, in a dim light,
We're passing thru time
Hiding from all the things around
To find them pure and sublime
Don't care if time keeps rushing by,
No matter if it's day or night
Ain't gonna be no one showing us
Something more than this existence
We share our wonderful crime

I'm glidin' on higher ground
So high, so high, coming out of the flood
Denying my stifling bounds
Strange rhythms are shaking my blood

My look falls down on a morning-glory
I pause to make sure it won't dry
Down in the depths of our sweet-talking love
I swim in virgin waters
Leave all my worries behind

I'm glidin' on higher ground
So high, so high, coming out of the flood
Denying my stifling bounds
Strange rhythms are shaking my blood

'Till you draw me down again,
'cause you know I feel better
When I've got my feet back on the ground,
When I just walk.
