Well I never thought I could feel this way,
I feel so alive I know it's cliché,
My heart's on my sleeve like a tattoo,
You make me believe forever is you,
Cause you're not just someone,
You're someone like me,
Someone to share all my hopes and my dreams,
You're all that I am,
And all I believe,
You're everything that I need.

But it hurts when you're close to me,
And it hurts when I watch you leave,
And it hurts from the things I feel,
That's how I know this love is real cause it hurts.

And time could never touch this,
Cause love conquers all just like a kiss from an angel's lips,
Though sometimes I break I stumble fall,
But you'll be the one to catch me through it all,
You're someone I dreamed and it's made me complete,
Now I can't go without you're the drug that I need,
And I'll never come down down from this cloud,
I won't let my feet touch the ground.

But it hurts when you're close to me,
And it hurts when I watch you leave,
And it hurts from the things I feel,
That's how I know that this love is real cause it hurts.

When you love someone,
More than yourself when it's all said and done, You're here or you're gone and I don't know what's worse cause it hurts,
When you're close to me,
And it hurts when I watch you leave.

But it hurts when you're close to me,
And it hurts when I watch you leave,

And it hurts from the things I feel,
That's how I know this love is real.

But it hurts when you're close to me,
And it hurts when I watch you leave,
And it hurts from the things I feel,
That's how I know this love is real cause it hurts.

That's how I know cause it hurts,
That's how I know cause it hurts,
This love is real cause it hurts,
Yeah that's how I know cause it hurts...
