The voice of temptation whispers at your ear
The sound of fear upsets your heart The innumerable shadows you can see change into different shapes around you -- around this gloomy place
The voice of temptation whispers at your ear -- the sound of fear ...
Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapes and takes in the stillness around
you Break out from the dark Release your dark mind
And awake -- the end of agony
Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapes and takes in the stillness around
you
Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapes and takes in the stillness around
you
-- The scream suddenly becomes wind
Spread your invisible wings at the moment you fly away
This false jail collapes and takes in the stillness around
you
-- The sorrow suddenly turns into kindness
