Alone, an hour is like a year
Every raindrop needs a tear

Dear lover,
God I miss you
I really do

Alone, an hour is like a year...

But you know what
You ain't the guy for me

Every raindrop needs a tear

And I ain't the girl for you

You always said you love me
You always said you care
'Cause you controlled a special part of me
A feeling that is rare

'Cause I'm about to enter the race
And I know there's no way
I could ever replace
The rock, my hand
I could never erase
But now I gotta let you go

Alone, an hour is like a year
An hour is like a year
Every raindrop needs a tear

Alone, an hour is like a year
An hour is like a year
Every raindrop needs a tear

I know they say
That time heals all wounds
Yeah yeah
And right now you can't see the truth
So take a look at me
Hand everything

Just wait
I'm just fine

That's why I had to write this letter to you
'Cause I'm about to enter the race
And I know there's no way
I could ever replace
The rock, my hand
I could never erase
But now I gotta let you go

Alone, an hour is like a year
An hour is like a year
Every raindrop needs a tear

Alone, an hour is like a year
An hour is like a year
Every raindrop needs a tear

'Cause I'm about to enter the race
The rock, my hand
I could never erase

Alone, an hour is like a year
An hour is like a year

That's why I had to write this letter

Alone, an hour is like a year
An hour is like a year

With Love,
Malina
