"Believe"

Take a ride
Take a nice long holiday
From the fear
That's been keeping you at bay
Into a warm place
Smile shines on your face
Fall into the arms of heaven
Faith is believing
In all you've been dreaming
The sky is the limit
If your heart is in it
Believe oh believe
I hear
That you sure could use a break
From your tears from your loneliness and pain
Don't be afraid to fall
Give in and give your all
Sweet is the taste of surrender
Sweet is the taste of, yes, sweet is the taste of surrender
