Oh my darling
Tell me what are you wanting for
So much darling
That we've got to be thankful for
For our babies, our life, our love
Can't we settle for more than enough

Hey there, newsman
Do you have anything good to say
So bad news sells more
Well don't you think there's a price to pay
For making us all so afraid
Until we turn you off and we say

Enough, enough, enough
Oh yeah
Enough, enough, enough

Hey there, preacher
Oh you're looking so tanned and trim
Please send money, money, money
What for? Your brand new Mercedes Benz
Salvation for pennies a week
Oh just call and you'll hear Jesus speak
And I'll be He'll say

Enough, enough, enough
Oh yeah
Enough, enough, enough

Hey there, mirror
Well you've the guiltiest one I see
You point your finger
Of course they're all pointing back at me
Oh sweet Jesus, Oh You think we'd learned by now
Helps us, Jesus, help us...help us to lay it down

Enough, enough, enough
Oh yeah
Enough, enough, enough

Haven't you had...
Enough, enough, enough
Oh yeah
Enough, enough, enough
