Hello, Wake up Wake up, this is a wake up call
We've been sleeping long enough
It's time to get up for us all, come on
Out there the children are dying
Their mothers are crying it feels like we're lying
'Cause we don't stand up and show
What we got, who we are,
Where we stand and our identity in Christ
We've all heard the rumour 'bout a nation wide revival
From the east to the west, from the north to the south
But face the fact man that's not gonna happen
Unless you get out of your bed right now

Chorus:

Good morning Christianity
I'm gonna shout loud all over Sweden
Until you get up, get up, get up, get up

Take a stand make your choice
Let all of the world hear the joyful noise
From the people who've chosen to bow for the king
Hey brotha, yo sistah, it's time now to sing
A new song, which has never been heard
You're called to sing it, to shout out the word of God
Let everybody know that he is the only way to go
So I have to flow and sing...
No, no, that's not a new song
We got to wake up, we got to wake up now

Chorus

I'm gonna shout loud all over Sweden
I'm gonna shout loud all over Sweden
I'm gonna shout loud all over Sweden
I'm gonna shout loud,
I'm gonna shout loud,
I'm gonna shout real loud
