"Over You"

I guess there's nothing left for me to say
But I acknowledge you're not coming back to me
I'm dwelling on where I went wrong
I never thought I'd be the one
To go regretting all the things I said
Before you turned and walked away

Chorus:
I'll get over you
And there's nothing I can do
But lay here trying to get through

I waited this out far too patiently
I waited up for you to come to me
I can't express quite what it cost
To have the world to me is loss
