Stop, rewind
What have you gotten yourself in this time?
Where's your sign?
Have you been waitin' up all night?

Little child
You've taken little from your years alive
Wasted mind
I hear you sayin', "Now that I can know you want this"
I hold you to your promise
What's still left to show for it, I cherish almost enough

Let's hope you're strong enough to take it
It's been too long
This fight goes on until you make it
'Til you make it out

Take this town
For an example, not a soul around
You're still down
For anything to get you out

Hear the sound
Of me proclaimin', "Now that I can know you want this"
I hold you to your promise

Let's hope you're strong enough to take it
It's been too long
This fight goes on until you make it
'Til you make it out

It's gonna take some waiting
It's gonna take some time
It's gonna be the best day
Of your life
