Just stop to think about the way it is
And the way we all just take it in
It's all wrong. It's all wrong
And it's all that'll be left of us when we're all gone
And the trials that we've been put in
We cruise right through them like it's anything
It's all wrong. It's all wrong
And it's all that'll be left of us when we're all gone

Chorus:

It's still here and here to stay
Won't go away or ever change
And I want to tell the world
Just how utterly absurd it all became

And now as we approach our ruling day

And we don't care we only look away
It's all wrong. It's all wrong
And it's all that'll be left of us when we're all gone
When they put letters on your day-in-age
And try to tell you you ain't anything
It's all wrong. It's all wrong
Don't let this be all that is left of us when we're all gone

[Repeat chorus]
