Stop, rewind What have you gotten yourself in this time? Where's your sign? Have you been waitin' up all night?

Little child You've taken little from your years alive Wasted mind I hear you sayin', "Now that I can know you want this" I hold you to your promise What's still left to show for it, I cherish almost enough

Let's hope you're strong enough to take it It's been too long This fight goes on until you make it 'Til you make it out

Take this town For an example, not a soul around You're still down

For anything to get you out

Hear the sound Of me proclaimin', "Now that I can know you want this" I hold you to your promise What's still left to show for it, I cherish almost enough

Let's hope you're strong enough to take it It's been too long This fight goes on until you make it 'Til you make it out

It's gonna take some waiting It's gonna take some time It's gonna be the best day Of your life
