Get it together, get a grip, take a breath
Every time I leave I won't be as bad as the next
Feeling sick in the chest
Don't know where I'm going and it couldn't mean less

Have a smoke take a walk
Nothing's gonna work out as easy as you thought
And it must be my fault
Sometimes when I'm drinking I spit when I talk

Forget everything that you were about to say
Shut your pretty mouth and lets just go away together
And I'll love you like I do
And nothing will get hold of you
Shut your pretty mouth and lets just go away together

Try to remember, you were sick, don't forget
No one by your side but I still never left
It's as bad as it gets
You think it sucks, well you'd never guess

And it hurts when I walk
Tried to run home, it was never a thought
And it always my fault
Something else is always on my mind when I talk

Forget everything that you were about to say
Shut your pretty mouth and lets just go away together
And I'll love you like I do
(And I loved you like you want me to)
And nothing will get hold of you
(And I loved you like you want me to)
Shut your pretty mouth and lets just go away together

And you need not be reminded
When I first showed up you were so excited
I see we're falling behind but I just followed you here
I just followed you here
When I first showed up
[?]

Forget everything that you were about to say
Shut your pretty mouth and lets just go away together
And I'll love you like I do
(And I loved you like you want me to)
And nothing will get hold of you
(And I loved you like you want me to)
Shut your pretty mouth and lets just go away (lets just go away)
Shut your pretty mouth and lets just go away
