Always hold on for the last kiss
It never gets easier its always like this.
Sat in the airport and played my SP Dinner ..
I wish i could sleep somehow right now
I took a valium ...
But it didnt do much to save me
From the heartbreak and anxiety that i wore on my sleeve
That morning i never wanted to leave
You all alone back at your home we'll see I'll call you when i get home if this plane gets me home in one piece.
And i hope for your sake i miss you more than you miss
me

I know your back at your house
Your brothers on the couch playing wow and you haven't passed out Could you still answer my messages
I know theres nothing to say to each other But don't go i don't wanna stay here i think im gonna Try to miss my plane and stay a little bit longer
I'm sorry i never wanted to leave
You all alone back at your home we'll see
I'll call you when i get home if this plane gets me back
in one piece
me

I'm Sorry, I never wanted to leave
You all alone back at your home we'll see
I'll call you when i get home if this plane gets me back
in one piece
And i hope for your sake i miss you more than you miss
me
