I knew who she was before he tapped me on the shoulder and pointed her out and once again it all was over

And you are absolutely positively something I can never have unless, I can take a look inside myself and make you feel impressed

Your head is in the clouds and I'm so low
but I try to see tonight
and have hope in tomorrow and I will have hope in tomorrow

I wanted to talk but the words I could not find she went for a walk if only I could read her mind

absolutely positively nothing like I've known before

Besides we come from different worlds and lead two different lives

If missing you is a part of life then to be is to be alive then to be is to be without you driving laps around you home

You're nothing like I've ever known before
