"Are You Crying"

See our love is in ruins whos said it would It's about to vanish whithout a trace now
We've given up the fight both of us hungry
Hungry for life but not for love
Now that we don't stand the ghost of a chance
To get back together find romance
IF I had the choice to make you feel better
I'd make it better for all times

Are you crying or is it the rain
Falling down to wash away your tears
Are your crying or is it your pain
I see glistening in your eyes
say you want me to be near
Want those tears to disappear

See our love-light shining through a cloudy day
Make it go away 'cause it's all pain
Say you want me back to come nearer
Just in case I won't you'll be crying
Now that we don't stand the ghost of a chance
To get back together find romance
If I had the choice to make you feel better
I'd make it better for all times

Are you crying or is it the rain
Falling down to wash away your tears
Are your crying or is it your pain
I see glistening in your eyes
say you want me to be near
Want those tears to disappear

Now that we don't stand the ghost of a chance
To get back together now find romance
If I had the choice to make you feel better
I'd make it better for all times

Are you crying or is it the rain
Falling down to wash away your tears
Are your crying or is it your pain

I see glistening in your eyes
say you want me to be near
Want those tears to disappear
