I traveled through time to see ya
Hoping to find you on the other side
Looking for something inside you
So hard to find the dark of night

All you need is something new
But you're too blind to follow through

Chasin' the dark star for you
Moving through black holes
To break through
White noise on the radio
Satellites spinning out of control
'Cause I'm chasin' a dark star for you

I traveled through space to find you
And take you away from the other side
Hoping to find the right words
And break the silence

All you need is something true
But you're too blind to follow through
Chasin' the dark star for you
Moving through black holes
To break through
White noise on the radio
Satellites spinning out of control
'Cause I'm chasin' a dark star for you

Chasin' the dark star for you
Moving through black holes
To break through
White noise on the radio
Satellites spinning out of control
'Cause I'm chasin' a dark star
Chasin' the dark star for you
Moving through black holes
To break through
White noise on the radio
Satellites spinning out of control
'Cause I'm chasin' a dark star for you
