Verse I

Look at me, what you see?
Is it him or me? Critic's is dissing me hard was this meant to be?
The feeling I'm feeling is real, and it's stealing, the meaning to stay in this field
Many men of tried it, few have ever made it
Most taken out fighting sin temptations
I separate my English, like the French
When I fall, get down repent, what don't ye get?

Chorus

Rocking me constantly, being somebody, the pressures is calling me
God and society Break Down Chorus
If do I could fall, if I don't I will crawl.
It's so hard having all, isn't this what I want
I stepped out, fell down, Got up, what now

Verse II

Put yourself in my shoes, with my crew,
I lose take a ride right through my mind, birds eye view
I stopped caring what yall think a year ago, here we go, radio, video,
Stereo, types cause I'm white, the harder I write, the more lies on my life
Ye tell it in spite
Right to my face, or stab me in the back

Manic depressive no, but I might just snap

Verse III

This position's warn out, I want out
It's what I wanted not what I thought
It was when I was poor now I'm cornered
Knowing now it's in the past with the wack raps
I'm signing 99 hundred 9 lines of autographs
Most significant feeling like I'm infinite Critics used to kick my backside now they kissing it
What a switch up, thought I'd a give up Ridiculous, how I ended up, so what I ain't so different, yeah I'm a Christian

Living still winning you got counterfeit religion
I say it in my lines in ye face up to rise
You hating on something that you ain't even tried
