are you satisfied or going through the motions, living
in suburbia,
dreaming of promotion, looking out of windows,
staring at the wall,
worrying about the neighbors, if they're getting any more. are you in control, happy to be warm, taking everyday as you did
the day before,
knowing every road is going back you your door.
and that's where it's at do you ever want more

well you lost your faith, a big mistake, though you had
no choice, it was preordained, an execution commuter to life yes, that's right but with no

respite, and all because the lady loves, the man
provides, at least he

tres, children take cover, don't watch with mother, it will be like that

cos it's on, are you satisfied, it's on have you been denied, it' son, I

know where you're from, I.T.S.O.N. it is, it's on
everybody sing the blues,

it's on, ain't got much to lose, it's on , have you been denied, are you

really satisfied.

are you satisfied, or are you suffocating, slowly being drowned, by the

boredom you are facing, mountains of mail, miles of double glazing, the weekly excursions and polite conversation are you mountains of mai, miles of double gazing the weekly excursions and polite conversation, are you

satisfied, content in what you own, heavily in debt, like everyone you know, the months turn to years but the view looks the same, the way that you play, is the way that its meant in this game.

Chorus:

preordained, an execution commuted to life yes, that's

tries, children take cover, don't watch with mother, it

any day that you find a way of hope or sunshine, the sky may fall and some resort to dragging you down.

I don't mind if you decline but I know that you're wrong, and if you close your eyes then you'll discover all that you love has gone, cos it's going.

and all because the lady loves, the man provides, at least he tries,
children take cover, don't watch with mother, it will be like that until we open your eyes.

it's on, ain't got shit to lose, it's on , have you been
really satisfied. it's on all around it it it it's on are you satisfied have you been denied I know where you're from, I.T.S.O.N. it is, it's on everybody sing the blues, it's on, it's on,

ain't got shit to lose, it's on, have you been denied, are you really
satisfied.
