Goodbye friendship, hello life I once new Hello heartache, this second meeting came too soon

I admit it, I still think about those times when I was with you
So I down these memories
Until this bottle turns empty
And I prey the feeling ends

And when I run
Away from you (well you can't hurt me any further)
I know just what to do (you can not help it, you know it's over)

No more phone calls
Don't tell me that you miss our times
Quit saying sorry

Cause sorry doesn't say enough

I admit it
I still think about those times when I was with you
So I down these memories
Until this bottle turns empty
And I prey the feeling ends

And when I run
Away from you (well you can't hurt me any further)
I know just what to do (you can not help it, you know it's
I run away from you
I run away from you
I run away from you

Wasn't it good enough for you?
