do you know how to dance the night away when got you no one to call your name an you remember how the story ends when you got no lover and got no friends can you come with me to the streets tonight I'll be runnin through to city lights if you take my hand we'll be okay just time on our hands, don't be afraid

no more time to think i'm out of sync with the world i'm in no more empty conversations with the psuedo politicians or the letters on the floor i'm gonna say it once more I'll count to fifty if i have to to be happy i'm on my way, i'm gonna make it through another day of this life, on my own can't stop me now i'm already gone

when you've got no one to call your name can you remember how to smile again when the door is slamming shut when it flies open again

we'll be runnin through to city lights
if you take my hand we'll be okay

i'm on my way, i'm gonna make it through
another day of this life, on my own
can't stop me now i'm already gone.
