whoever's fine whatever's cool it was me i broke your rules too much to say i'll take it back
will never hold me back never hold me back

trying to exert control in a world that's uncontrollable and every time it seems i find a way that isn't ever kind and you were standing next to me a waste of time a waste to cry
but i still do it

but i still do it

its all wrong now it's all right told a lie then said goodnight you took my hand took it too far told you there was more to me if you look real hard

i still do it
