Been a hard one, been a bad one
Been a tough one, been a sad one
It's been one of those days
That keeps chipping away at my heart

Nothing new here, it's what I do here
It's a stereotypical day in the life
I'm surrounded by all of the pain and the strife
But I know it's alright

'Cause it's only the world I'm living in
It's only today I've been given
There ain't no way I'm giving in
'Cause it's only the world

I know the best is still yet to come
'Cause even when my days in the world are done
There's gonna be so much more than only the world for me
Yeah, it's only the world

Anybody, can you hear me?
Do you feel me? I mean, do you feel me?
I know I'm not the only one
Wearing the weight of this world

We got problems, said it's alright
Just remember, yeah, it's alright
Take a good look around
We're just stuck on the ground for a little while Don't it make you smile?

'Cause it's only the world I'm living in
It's only today I've been given
And there ain't no way I'm giving in
'Cause it's only the world

I know the best is still yet to come
'Cause even when my days in the world are done
There's gonna be so much more than only the world for
me
Yeah, it's only the world, yeah, it's only the world

Heaven is a place where the tears on every face
Will be wiped away
And I can't wait to go, but for now it's enough to know
This is only temporary, this is only

'Cause it's only the world I'm living in
It's only today I've been given
And there ain't no way I'm giving in
'Cause it's only the world

I know the best is still yet to come
'Cause even when my days in the world are done
There's gonna be so much more than only the world for
me

'Cause it's only the world I'm living in
It's only today I've been given
And there ain't no way I'm giving in
'Cause it's only the world

I know the best is still yet to come
'Cause even when my days in the world are done
There's gonna be so much more than only the world for
me
Yeah, it's only the world, yeah, it's only the world
