La, la, la

Twilight in my eye
Then I can see for seven million miles
Twilight in my eye tonight

The dreams become clear
The fog gets thicker every time I inhale
Stars look the same to me

Oh my God, I went gold when I saw your smiling face
I went gold when I went through this troubling maze
I went gold and my people behind me all did the same

Oh my God, I went gold when the ocean swallowed me
I went gold and I felt that I was free
I went gold and my people behind me all did the same

It's a way to the heaven, don't try to feel too much
Just let the morning dry your eye
And I say la, la, la

Let it all in
Don't feel afraid of dying, just give in
Let it all in tonight

Oh my God, I went gold when I saw your smiling face
I went gold when I went through this troubling maze
I went gold and my people behind me all did the same

Oh my God, I went gold when the ocean swallowed me
I went gold and I felt that I was free
I went gold and my people behind me all did the same

It's a way to the heaven, don't try to feel too much
Just let the morning dry your eye
And I say la la, la la, la

La, la, la

Oh my God, I went gold when I saw your smiling face
I went gold when I went through this troubling maze

I went gold and my people behind me all did the same

Oh my God, I went gold when the ocean swallowed me

I went gold and I felt that I was free

I went gold and my people behind me all did the same

La, la, la
