"Losing My Mind"

Maybe back in June you find
All you ever want
That's what people say to me
On my crying days

Step into my dreaming space
Hide behind the door
Demons stole my pride when they got bored

Try to get away for good
Leaving on a train
Find that all that matters to me
Blew away with the wind

Hope I find a shady yard
Where I can stay and find my way
Sing a song in minor breaks the day

I've been losing my mind for so long
I've been losing my mind for so long
I've been losing my mind for so long
Maybe that's all I'm ever gonna do

The roads you're on seems far away
I tried to draw a map
Holding on to memories
Of the paradise
I will search for harmony
Get a glimpse of glory days
Sing a song in minor get away

I've been losing my mind for so long
I've been losing my mind for so long
I've been losing my mind for so long
Maybe that's all I'm ever gonna do
