Mr Moon, Mr Moon, maybe your time is coming.
Mr Moon, Mr moon, what's happening in the room?
We searched our heart, before you die, let the times
stay away.
We was given as a promise to each and every man.

I wanna love you but I'm growing old.
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul.
Will she come over when it's time to go.
Come on and show me little drummer boy, no.

Mr Moon (3x.)

Sad but true, sad but true, were telling me what to do.
I've learned my lesson, a stupid question, growing up my pride.
But you're a girl, I've seen your skirt, showing me the whole
Oh my love, you're so tired, but your mouth been quiet.

I wanna love you but I'm growing old.
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul.
Will she come over when it's time to go.
Come on and show me little drummer boy, no.

Mr Moon (3x.)
Heeeey
Mr Moon (3x.)
Ohhh wuhuhuhu

I wanna love you but I'm growing old.
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul.
Will she come over when it's time to go.
Come on and show me little drummer boy.

I wanna love you but I'm growing old.
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul.
They leave a fusion and it's final bread,
I've never been so sure, I've never doubted you
Mr Moon (3x.)
