Paint the picture with my final sunrise
Paint the ocean with the drags of my tears, I
I wanna be the only one
The only one who knew you when i'm gone
And flown away

When you're near me i feel so secure and
When you feared me i felt, i felt even more, I
I wanna be the only one
The only one who knew you when i'm gone
And flown away
I've flown away
I've flown away

Cause I've got no more tears to give you after this
I'm gonna lock my heart and throw away the keys
I hope my love will carry on
My love I won't forget you when I'm gone

Didn't know that i could walk through fire
I didn't know that that was my desire
I wanted to be whole again
But you where never there to take my hand
I've flown away
I've flown away
And i've flown away

Cause i've got no more tears to give you after this
I'm gonna lock my heart and throw away the keys
I hope my love will carry on
My love i won't forget you when i'm gone

Cause i've got no more tears to give you after this
I'm gonna lock my heart and throw away the keys
I've said it all, i gave you all
You left me standing in the rain
You took my pride and left me in suffer and in pain
I hope my love will carry on
My love i won't forget you when i'm gone6qqq4
