ianonman iibiich live, live,

Bloodied be hinloa samuoan

Lie mother my sufferin', stronger is my mind

Layin' my words so brave, sweet, so...

never life so far

Slaves of our passion, we drown deepin' in sighs

Please, we want our death like dew

Leave our mind to decide

ianonman iibiich live, live

Bloodied be hinloa samuoan

Swallowin' our deadly dreams, gloomy memories come back to me

Mildly in agony we wait

All nightfall our knowledge became like a fadin' rain

Everytime we may fall enslave

Terrible past flowin' in these veins

Waitin' for silence that drives us insane

Mercy in your eye, nightmares on lips

Macabre damsels slaves of these gems

Drained of blood, merely death

Spells on the rain marries our love

Melodies will not die in our veins
