Hold me

Let me be a little girl again

Don't want a lover now...I need a friend

And a warm, safe place to be

Hold me

Don't want to talk...and I don't want to smile

I only want to hide...and rest awhile

And have you holdin' me

Bridge:

I don't want to think about the world outside your arms

And everything it calls on me to do

I'm all out of giving....let me take for just a minute

Sometimes I need to be a baby too...and have you

Hold me

Let me be a little girl again

Don't want a lover now...I need a friend

And a warm, safe place to be

Hold me

Don't want to talk...and I don't want to smile

I only want to hide...and rest awhile

And have you holdin' me

Just hold me

Don't want to talk...and i don't want to smile

I only want to hide...and rest awhile

And have you holdin' me
