Rain drops falling from the sky
Tear drops falling from my eyes
Too many heartaches since you've been gone
I'm drowning in sorrow and pain
Too many memories won't leave me alone
Oh, it's raining, raining

Rainy Days
All I do is think of you, skies of grey
Turn my world a deeper blue with you so far away
There's only Rainy Days

Sunshine hides behind the clouds
He's feelin' blue like me
Maybe tomorrow he'll come out again
And shine down on this lonely world
I wish my sorrow would come to an end
'Cause it's raining, raining
Rainy Days
All I do is think of you, skies of grey
Turn my world a deeper blue with you so far away
There's only Rainy Days
Wishin' and hopin'
You hear my heart callin', callin'
Tears on your picture, tears on the floor
They're fallin', fallin'

Rainy Days
All I do is think of you, skies of blue
Turn my world a deeper blue with you so far away
There's only Rainy Days
All I do is think of you, skies of blue
Turn my world a deeper blue with you so far away
There's only Rainy Days
