There's no need to shout it out
I can't make it go away
You're spinning on the spot
You've been like this for days
And your mind is shattered light
A glass of cheap champagne
The traffic flows outside
Like the morphine through your veins
And you can scream my name
You can pound the floor
You can treat me like some downtown whore
You can slap my face till i'm black and blue
But whatever you say
You can't make me hate you
When the neighbours start to call
I'll just say you're not around
You crawled under your bed
Now you're nowhere to be found
And it's true that I forget
Just who you really are
But there's no turning back
Now that i've come this far
And you can scream my name
You can pound the floor
You can treat me like some downtown whore
You can slap my face till i'm black and blue
But whatever you say
You can't make me hate you
Ohhh, you can scream my name
You can pound the floor
You can treat me like some downtown whore
You can slap my face till i'm black and blue
But whatever you say
You can't make me hate you
(Scream my name) You can't make me
(Pound the floor) Hate you
(Treat me like some downtown whore) No No No
(Slap my face till i'm black and blue) But whatever you say, You can't make me hate you
You can't make me hate you
Ohh no
