Just say what you wanna say
Turn around and walk away
And i'll just stand here wondering why
We can't give it one more try
No more shelter from the storm
No more faith to keep me warm
You were standing in the rain
But it doesn't feel the same
You know i can't live this way
I lost the best thing that i had
And i am subsequently sad
All the good times and the bad
I still don't know who i am
Subsequently sad
Sometimes wonder why we're here
Fall in love then disappear
Blood is red your eyes are blue
I need both to get me through
So kiss me now and put up a fight
I'll make everything alright
You know i can't live this way
Lost the best thing that i had
And i am subsequently sad
All the good times and the bad
I still don't know who i am
Subsequently sad
Tell me now just spit it out
What is all of this about
We've been through all this before
I can't take it anymore
I lost the best thing that i had
And i am subsequently sad
All the good times and the bad
I still don't know who i am
I lost the best thing that i had
And i am subsequently sad
You know i can't live this way
